IC 6-8-11-15

Sec. 15. If an employee submits documentation to the account administrator concerning eligible medical expenses that the employee has incurred and paid for medical care for the employee or a dependent of the employee, the account administrator shall reimburse the employee from the employee's account for the eligible medical expenses paid by the employee.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-16

Sec. 16. An employer that makes contributions to a medical care savings account program on a periodic installment basis may advance to an employee, interest free, an amount necessary to cover unpaid eligible medical expenses that exceed the amount in the employee's medical care savings account if the employee agrees to repay the advance:

- (1) from future installments; or
- (2) when the employee ceases to be an employee of the employer.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-17

Sec. 17. (a) An employee may, under this section, withdraw money from the employee's medical care savings account for a purpose other than the purposes set forth in section 13 of this chapter.

(b) Except as provided in section 11(b) of this chapter, if an employee withdraws money from the employee's medical care savings account on the last business day of the account administrator's business year for a purpose not set forth in section 13 of this chapter:

- (1) the money withdrawn is income to the individual that is subject to taxation under IC 6-3-2-18(e); but
- (2) the withdrawal does not:
 - (A) subject the employee to a penalty; or
 - (B) make the interest earned on the account during the tax year taxable as income of the employee.

(c) Except as provided in section 11(b) of this chapter, if an employee withdraws money for a purpose not set forth in section 13 of this chapter at any time other than the last business day of the account administrator's business year, all of the following apply:

- (1) The amount of the withdrawal is income to the individual that is subject to taxation under IC 6-3-2-18(e).
- (2) The administrator shall withhold and, on behalf of the employee, pay a penalty to the department of state revenue equal to ten percent (10%) of the amount of the withdrawal.

(3) All interest earned on the balance in the account during the tax year in which a withdrawal under this subsection is made is income to the individual that is subject to taxation under IC 6-3-2-18(f).

(d) Money paid to the department of state revenue as a penalty under this section shall be deposited in the local health maintenance fund established by IC 16-46-10-1.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-18

Sec. 18. (a) For the purposes of section 17(b) of this chapter, an account administrator that begins to administer a medical care savings account shall, in writing, notify the employee for whose benefit the account was established of the date of the last business day of the administrator's business year.

(b) The notice required by this section must be given not more than thirty (30) days after the account administrator begins to administer the medical care savings account.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-19

Sec. 19. Money in a medical care savings account established under this chapter is exempt from execution under IC 34-55-10-2.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2; P.L.1-1998, SEC.85.

IC 6-8-11-20 Sec. 20. (a) This section applies only to an employee who has no dependents who are covered under the medical care savings account established for the benefit of the employee.

(b) Upon the death of the employee for whose benefit a medical care savings account was established, the account administrator shall distribute the principal and accumulated interest of the account to the estate of the employee by mailing a check to the personal representative of the employee (as defined in IC 29-1-1-3).

(c) The distribution of the balance in a medical care savings account under this section is not income to the individual or to the estate of the individual that is subject to taxation under IC 6-3-1 through IC 6-3-7.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-21

Sec. 21. If an individual:

(1) who was employed by an employer that participated in a medical care savings account program; and

(2) whose employment was terminated;

becomes employed with a different employer that participates in a medical care savings account program, the individual may transfer the medical care savings account that was established for the individual's benefit by the former employer to the account administrator of the new employer.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-22

Sec. 22. If the employment of an individual by an employer that participates in a medical care savings account program is terminated, the money in the individual's medical care savings account may continue to be used for the benefit of the individual and the individual's dependents and remains exempt from taxation as provided under this chapter if, not more than sixty (60) days after the individual's final day of employment:

- (1) the individual transfers the individual's medical care savings account to a new account administrator; or
- (2) the individual requests in writing that the former employer's account administrator remain the administrator of the individual's account, and the account administrator agrees to retain the account.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-23

Sec. 23. (a) This section applies when the employment of an individual by an employer that participates in a medical care savings account program is terminated.

(b) If the former employer is not informed, within ninety (90) days after the former employee's final day of employment, of the name and address of an account administrator to which the former employer is transferring the former employee's medical care savings account under section 21 of this chapter, the former employer shall pay the money in the former employee's medical care savings account to the former employee under subsection (d).

(c) If:

- (1) the former employee, under section 22(2) of this chapter, requests in writing that the former employer's account administrator remain the administrator of the individual's medical care savings account; and
- (2) the account administrator does not agree to retain the account; the former employer shall, within ninety (90) days after the former employee's final day of employment, pay the money in the former employee's medical care savings account to the former employee under subsection (d).

(d) An employer that is required under this section to pay the money in a former employee's medical care savings account to the former employee shall mail to the former employee, at the former employee's last known address, a check for the balance in the account on the ninety-first day after the employee's final day of employment.

(e) Except as provided in section 11(b) of this chapter, money that is paid to a former employee under subsection (d):

- (1) is subject to taxation under IC 6-3-1 through IC 6-3-7 as income of the individual; but
- (2) is not subject to the penalty referred to in section 17(c)(2) of this chapter.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-24

Sec. 24. (a) This section applies if an individual:

- (1) whose employer participates in a medical care savings account program; and
- (2) who has one (1) or more dependents who are covered under the account established for the benefit of the individual;

dies.

(b) After the death of an individual described in subsection (a), the money in the individual's medical care savings account may continue to be used for the benefit of the individual's dependents and remains exempt from taxation as provided under this chapter if, not more than sixty (60) days after the individual's death:

- (1) the individual's medical care savings account is transferred to a new account administrator; or
- (2) the dependents of the individual request in writing that the account administrator of the late individual's employer remain the administrator of the account, and the account administrator agrees to retain the account.

(c) If the former employer of an individual described in subsection (a) is not informed, within ninety (90) days after the individual's death, of the name and address of an account administrator to which the medical care savings account has been transferred under subsection (b)(1), the former employer shall pay the money in the medical care savings account to the estate of the individual under subsection (e).

(d) If:

- (1) the dependents of an individual described in subsection (a), under subsection (b)(2), request in writing that the former employer's account administrator remain the administrator of the individual's medical care savings account; and
 - (2) the account administrator does not agree to retain the account;
- the former employer shall, within ninety (90) days after the individual's death, pay the money in the individual's medical care savings account to the estate of the individual under subsection (e).

(e) Under the circumstances described in subsection (c) or (d), the account administrator shall distribute the principal and accumulated interest in the account to the estate of the individual by mailing a check to the personal representative of the individual (as defined in IC 29-1-1-3).

(f) The distribution of the balance in a medical care savings account under subsection (e) is not income to the individual or to the estate of the individual that is subject to taxation under IC 6-3-1 through IC 6-3-7.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.

IC 6-8-11-25

Sec. 25. (a) The insurance commissioner appointed under IC 27-1-1-2 and the department of state revenue may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 necessary to implement this chapter.

(b) The rules adopted under this section must include a procedure for the adjustment of figures required by sections 5 and 10 of this chapter.

As added by P.L.92-1995, SEC.2 and P.L.93-1995, SEC.2.
